MOUNT HORROCKS Riesling 'Cordon Cut' 2014* HALF (los)

Mount Horrocks Wines is run by proprietor/winemaker Stephanie Toole. Stephanie restricts production to approximately 4,500 cases per annum in order to achieve her aims of quality and single vineyard expression. Stephanie describes her wines as 'essentially hand made food wines with an emphasis on structure as well as generous fruit flavours'. All grapes are 100% estate grown from three separate vineyard sites totalling nearly 10 hectares in the Clare Valley. Pale yellow gold. Orange marmalade and fresh vanilla notes lift a most appealing aroma. These carry through to the palate, augmented with lemon curd and mineral-flint tones, a clear, bright sherbet-like tang and incredible length of flavour. It's wonderfully concentrated and sweet but in no way cloying, managing to combine richness with vitality and texture with zing. This vintage is a little more intense, mouth-filling and flavoursome – partially due to the influence of botrytis cinerea mould, a first for Cordon Cut. 5 Star Decanter Award!

MORANDE Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc - Aconcagua 2013 HALF (37.5cl) (los)

Viña Morandé was founded in 1996 with the aim of producing innovative wines of great quality, with a clear focus on the development of its brands. To achieve this they have developed production processes and quality guarantees that includes the following: selection of terroirs, grape varieties and clones, vineyard architecture, advanced irrigation systems, organic management and systems for monitoring the growth, ripening and development of the fruit.

TASTING: Rich golden colour with a nose of quince, jasmine and marmalade. The palate is sweet with flavours of papaya, honey, magnolia and crystallised orange and lemon. The finish is fresh and complex.

FOOD: Foie gras. Roquefort. Fruit tarts.

EMILIO LUSTAU Almacenista Amontillado del Puerto 50cl HALF LITRE (los)

Nose: a very rounded, honeyed nose, with lots of butter pastry and marzipan. Toffee and demerara sugar. Also hints of orange oils and a tangy note that holds the middle between mint and iodine. Soft hints of varnish. There's a toasted, earthy side to it as well but overall it is very much a rounded nose.

Mouth: big and creamy, not as dry, starting on almonds, vanilla and toffee, with quite a glyceric mouthfeel. Relatively low acidity, but there is a balanced zesty note, as well as a quiet salty note. Some toasted notes again. Long finish, refined, with almonds and a light bittersweet edge.

EMILIO LUSTAU Moscatel 'Emilin' 37.5cl HALF (los)

The Moscatel Emilin is part of the Solera Familiar range from Lustau. The Moscatel grapes for this wine are grown in a vineyard called Las Cruces in the sandy soil near Chipiona, close to the coast, where Lustau grows only Moscatel and Pedro Ximénez. Like Pedro Ximénez, most of the Moscatel grapes are laid out in the sun to dry. However Lustau chooses to maximize the sugars by picking the grapes as late as possible, thus reducing the need for a long drying period (which holds a risk of rotting). Fermentation is arrested early, in order to keep the natural sugar of the grapes. Moscatel Emilin is around 8 years old on average.

People always remember Pedro Ximénez when talking about sweet sherry, but Moscatel is often overlooked. It can be just as sweet (this one holds around 200 g/l of sugar) but it is usually a little different, often more fragrant and a tad more refined.

PETALUMA Cabernet/Merlot (Yellow Label) 2012 Bottle (los)

The 2012 Petaluma Coonawarra is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon (76%), Merlot (20%) and Shiraz (4%), all from our Evans Vineyard planted in 1968. This Cabernet dominant wine has black currant with a hint of plum and is an elegant style with spice and cedar and wonderful soft sandy tannins. Mocha and a lovely hint of Cabernet mint and leaf herald the 2012 Coonawarra as a wine to enjoy with a few years in bottle, but one that will age gracefully for many years, as so many Petaluma Coonawarra reds have. No 2011 Coonawarra was made, the vintage being a wipe out in most of Southern Australia.

TASTING: This Cabernet dominant wine has black currant with a hint of plum and is an elegant style with spice and cedar and wonderful soft sandy tannins. Mocha and a lovely hint of Cabernet mint and leaf herald the 2012 Coonawarra as a wine to enjoy with a few years in bottle.

CHANGYU MOSER XV Cabernet Sauvignon 2008 Bottle (los)

"One's first impulse to judge this wine simply for its novelty value, but that is to do it a disservice. Empirically, in the context of Chinese red wines, it is outstanding, but how does it stack up internationally? Priced in line with, for example, a relatively serious red Bordeaux, there is plenty of Cabernet character, pure fruit, no earthiness, well-integrated oak and, most importantly ripe tannins and a rewarding concentration. In a blind tasting of its Bordeaux peers, it would not be embarrassed, but neither would it be the best. It may be at the top end of its price bracket, but it's in a field of one at the moment, and gives a fascinating glimpse of a possible future. The first vintage is 2008, 90% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Merlot, with 12 months in French oak. Yields are low, the fruit is site selected, there a sorting table (the first in China), classic Bordelais treatment."

DOMAINE DES CAMBES (of Roc de Cambes) Cotes de Bourg 2011 Bottle (los)

"From the flatter parcel of Roc de Cambes, it has a delightful, very natural dark berry/mulberry nose with just a faint hint of cocoa. The palate is very well defined with crisp tannins, fresh, natural with lively dark cherries and a hint of crushed stone towards the finish. Lovely." 89-91 points Robert Parker
From 65% Merlot with 17.5% Cabernet Sauvignon and 17.5% Cabernet Franc, the wine opens with forest, earth and plum, medium body and a short black cherry finish. This is a wine to enjoy young.

CHATEAU DE CHAMIREY Mercurey Rouge 2006 Bottle(ck)

Planted in the best terroirs of Mercurey, the Domaine covers 95 acres of which 38 are located amongst the most renowned Premiers Crus of the appellation. The domain consists in 37 hectares (27 reds, 10 whites, 15 of which are Premier Cru) reflecting the diverse soils and micro climates found within the Mercury appellation. The whites, fresh and lively and well balanced. Château de Chamirey red is true indulgence. It has a silky texture, and is very fruity typically showing the flavour of cherries. TASTING: The nose brings black fruits (blackberries, blueberries), woody and vanilla aromas. The mouth reveals ripe and velvety tannins, beautiful freshness, balance and suppleness.

PATRICE & MAXIME RION Nuits-St-Georges Vieilles Vignes 2013 Bottle(ck)

Having previously bought the fruit, the Rions now have bought the vineyard in the lieu-dit of Les Plateaux, where the vines were planted in 1971. This has a beautifully classic Nuits nose, a lovely, plump middle and a beautiful finish. It is both sumptuous and stylish, and has been hugely improved by the Rions' dedicated work in the vineyard. Jasper Morris MW, Berrys' Burgundy Director Patrice and son Maxime Rion are tweaking their techniques a little by reducing new oak and slightly increasing extraction in the pre-fermentation stage. This delicious old vine bottling of Nuits St Georges comes from Les Plateaux vineyard, tucked in behind the town itself. It boasts a fine bright red purple colour, with delicious red fruit and a plum note or two. Very pure and fine.

PATRICE & MICHEL RION Bourgogne Rouge 'Les Bons Batons' 2013 Bottle(ck) (los)

127 ~~£19.95~~ £8.00 40 % Further Reduced to Clear ONLY £11.95

Despite this being a very late season, Patrice compares 2013 to the fruit of early vintages such as 2007 and 2011, but with more stuffing. It also reminds him of 1980, a particularly successful vintage chez Rion. The 2013 crop is a small one though, a touch more than 2012 but less than 2011. They employed two sorting tables, and since the grapes which reached the vats were all healthy, they used less sulphur during vinification.

VINCENT GIRARDIN Pommard Vieilles-Vignes 2012 MAGNUM

PLAIMONT Le Favori de Gascogne Rouge 2015 Bottle (los)

Since the late 1980s, we have imported wines from Plaimont in Côtes de Gascogne at ESV. They are in southwestern France around the town of Saint-Mont, where they use the slightly more unknown grapes such as Tannat, Colombard and Pinenc. Gascony is a thriving wine region in France and Plaimont is, to a degree, a producer that delivers high quality year after year. Old vineyards have been rebuilt and new have been planted since they were founded back in 1979. Sustainable methods are used in these fields where chemicals for a price are also avoided. Le Favori Rouge is a blend of Tannat, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Tannat is a very tartaric grape, which can be difficult to tame, so blend here with the Bordeaux grapes, giving a soft, juicy and pleasant fruity red wine. Cool the wine down to 15 degrees and enjoy the terrace if you have enough rosé and white wine.

ALPHA ZETA Valpolicella 'V' 2014/15* Bottle (los)

Alpha Zeta was started in 1999 when leading New Zealand winemaker, Matt Thomson, set out to produce a range of modern, fruit driven wines from the hills outside Verona. The aim was to work with growers (rather than buy bulk wine, which is standard among most wines from Verona at this price) to obtain ripe grapes and then, using Matt's expertise, preserve these flavours in the finished wines. The vineyards are situated in the hills outside Verona. Matt selected those in excellent moderate vigour sites where the growers had significantly reduced the crop. This Corvina blend shows lovely depth of colour, with perfumes of fresh black cherries. On the palate the wine is soft and ripe, with a light, youthful freshness which lifts its cherry pie flavours and accentuates its perfume. The palate has good length with a hint of cherry chocolate on the finish.

CASTELLO DI BUTTRIO 'Mon Rouge' (Merlot/ Cabernet/Refosco) 2013 Bottle (los)

Mon Rouge is a blend of three wines in which each component lends varietal character to a whole that is more than the sum of its parts. Merlot's intense fruit is set off by the tannic extract of Cabernet and signs off with all the depth of a Refosco-led back palate.

Invitingly soft tannins are beautifully complemented by approachability as the territory-true sensory profile lays out berry fruits on the nose and delicate spice on the palate.

CASTELLO DI BUTTRIO 'Pignolo' 2010 Bottle (los)

Pignolo has had a difficult history. It graced Friuli's tables from the early Middle Ages before almost dying out altogether, a victim of low yields and and its own physiological sensitivity. Recovered by clonal selection, the pignolo vine was replanted in the Buttrio area and in 1995 it finally found a home in the Colli Orientali DOC.

The grape's deep purple skin harbours an abundance of assertive tannins while its bouquet is redolent of ripe wild berries, aromatic herbs and fine spices.

Aged in old barrels and bottled unfiltered.

VILLA SALETTA 'Borgo Saletta' Rosso IGT 2006 Bottle (los)

The Borgo Saletta is a true expression of the whole estate, encompassing a blend of predominantly Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot from all vineyard sites. Although the varietals are the same as Saletta, a significantly greater percentage of Merlot in the Borgo Saletta adds fruit aromatics and suppleness. The focus is on fine tannins in order to provide more immediate drinkability.

The wine is aged for just under a year in oak barrels that have already seen 1-2 years of use for the cellaring of Saletta, which contributes complexity without the more marked definition of new oak.

VILLA SALETTA 'Saletta' Rosso 2006/07* Bottle (los)

Saletta is the estate's flagship wine, a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, and a touch of Merlot selected from the best vineyard crops of the vintage. The wine is aged for 15-18 months in French oak barrels (minimum 50% new oak) and is then aged for a further 2 years in bottle before release. The goal is to create a wine with intensity and complexity coupled with the ability to evolve over a 6-10 year cellaring cycle or longer. This barrel-ageing lends the Saletta structure and character, best enjoyed after decanting. Approximately 2,000 to 5,000 bottles of the Saletta are made each year, beginning with the 2005 vintage.

Pairing Notes: Pairs well with main course meals with oven-roasted or grilled meat dishes, where an abundance of flavour is matched by the greater dimension of the wine. We suggest that the wine is decanted or aerated before serving. The 2007 vintage received a Gold Medal at Mundus Vini 2013, a Bronze Medal at the IWSC 2012 and a Silver Medal at the 2014 Sommelier Wine Awards.

A delicate pale pink, rose-petal colour, our Rose has a very floral nose and is extremely fine on the palate, rounded yet balanced without tending to fat. There is just enough acidity and a long clean finish, leaving the impression of a perfect freshness. (It was our aim to preserve freshness and finesse rather than tend to the softer, weightier style of many Roses, retaining a high level of residual sugar and a strong alcohol content.) Lively, flowery and fruity, our Rose has to be tasted fresh (about 8 degrees C).

CHATEAU OLLIEUX ROMANIS Rose 2014/15* Bottle (los)

The Château Ollieux-Romanis is a magnificent property, surrounded by old vines and olive trees or 'Ollieux'. It has been owned by the same family since 1860. The oldest Carignan vines were planted in 1896. Wine is an important part of the family history. Jacqueline Bories was probably the first woman to vinify wine in the Languedoc at a time when wine was a man's affair. Avoiding the temptations of fashion, she developed the potential of traditional grape varieties often considered as being of a low quality level : Carignan, Cinsault, Grenache gris, Alicante. This is a rosé with a difference! Bright salmon in colour with ruby shades. Beautifully structured with delicate tannins, this rosé, made from the Cinsault grape is soft and fresh with a touch of spice, black berries and grapefruit. QUINTA DE LA ROSA Rose 2015 Bottle (los) 38 — ~~£9.95~~ £2.00 20 % Reduced to Clear at ONLY £7.95
The terroir in the Douro is still largely unexplored and by making wines with balance, harmony and equilibrium from our vineyards, we try to enable the grapes to express themselves in the bottle. Our style is to make well defined wines without too much extraction, tannin or oak and with good freshness and minerality. The 2015 rosé continues in the 'lighter' style to previous years. They allowed much less skin contact to the free run juice so that the rosé is somewhat paler. The resulting wine still has a good structure and attractive red fruit flavours with a touch of wild strawberry. Totally dry in the mouth, the wine has great freshness and pleasing acidity. Serve chilled, as an excellent refreshing aperitif. Given its structure, it is a perfect with food and can easily be drunk when eating summer salads, fish, chicken and other white meats.

Birichino, pronounced biri-kino, is a very interesting project. Founded in Santa Cruz in 2008, and drawing on a combined 35 years making and selling wine in California, France, and Italy, owners and winemakers Alex Krause and John Locke are focused on attaining the perfect balance of perfume, poise, and puckishness with a particular fondness for varieties that provide enormous pleasure and re-establish a direct connection to the sensual world (at least, that's what they say). John worked from 1990 to 2007 with the legendary Randall Graham of Bonny Doon Vineyard, with (the equally legendary) André Ostertag of Domaine Ostertag in Alsace in 1993, and with a host of small producers across Italy and south-western France. This Malvasia Bianca lives up to the house style. Incredibly floral, with ripe tropical fruits, jasmine and elderflowers on the nose, the wine is refreshingly dry on the palate, with green apple, yellow plum, and ginger. Try this with spicy Asian dishes like pad Thai or Peking duck.

BODEGA TACUIL Sauvignon Blanc 'RD' 2015 Bottle (los) 36 ~~£19.95~~ £4.00 20 % Reduced to Clear ONLY £15.95

Tacuil is a place of incredible natural beauty, with the ideal climate for the production of spices, fruits and grapes destined to fine wines, internationally recognized. The winery is located in the province of Salta, located in the heart of the Calchaquí Valley at about 2,600 meters above sea level, considered one of the highest vineyards in the world and has an extension of 127 km2. Its basic production is oriented to the varieties Cabernet Sauvignon and Malbec for the reds; While the whites are made from Torrontés and Sauvignon Blanc. All the vineyards are worked in an organic way and watered with water from the mountain melt.

Tasting Notes: Bright lemon yellow with greenish tints. Smell: Aromatic intensity, presence of grapefruit, very elegant citric notes and subtle aromas of white fruits. Taste: Pleasant acidity that brings freshness and balance. Great elegance and persistence.

SUSANA BALBO Signature White Blend (Sauv /Semillon/Torrontes) 2015 Bottle (los) 15 ~~£16.95~~ £4.00 24 % Reduced to Clear ONLY £12.95

We were asked to taste this blind and we did identify the Semillon, and the Sauvignon Blanc, but what was providing that exotic richness on the nose; Riesling? No, Torrontés. 33% of each varietal is separately barrel fermented then blended and rested in those barrels for a further 4 months. The oak is delicate, the fruit is complex and explosive, run through with delicious acidity, steely and nervous, and we suspect this wine will age very well indeed, if it lasts that long. The grapes are from the Uco Valley, naturally.

"A mould-breaking, low alcohol cuvée of Torrontés, Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon, all from the Uco Valley and two thirds fermented in concrete eggs. Grapefruit, gooseberry and struck match notes are complemented by a hint of oak on the Torrontés. One of the country's best whites in year one." 94/100 Tim Atkin ARGENTINA 2016 Special Report (2015 vintage)

THE SPEE'WAH Houseboat Chardonnay 2015/16* Bottle (los) 18 ~~£8.95~~ £2.00 22 % Reduced to Clear at ONLY £6.95

Tales of Crooked Mick have been told around bushfires since the first European's started getting lost in the outback. They tell of a wild, larger than life character that lived in the Spee'Wah – among locations used over time is an area of the country on the border between New South Wales and Victoria, close to the Speewa cable ferry that crosses the Murray River north of Swan Hill, and home to the vines that made these wines.

Elizabeth Richardson is the winemaker behind the label and she has a trophy cabinet stuffed full of medals from her stint at Capel Vale in WA. Liz has one aim and one aim only: to ensure you reach for a second and third glass. Her knowledge of the Murray Darling vineyards is second to none and her contact book of growers is the envy of her peers. She has cherry picked parcels of outstanding fruit to make these wines and the quality shines through as soon as the bottles are opened.

Made from Chardonnay grapes, this wine is medium bodied with aromas of tropical fruit. On the palate there are crisp citrusy flavours and some nuttiness which comes from the oak aging this wine has undergone.

HENSCHKE 'Julius' Riesling 2015 Bottle (los) 6 ~~£22.95~~ £6.00 26 % Reduced to Clear ONLY £16.95

Cyril Henschke developed the Henschke reputation for premium riesling wines as early as the 1950s from the vineyard areas of Eden Valley, Keyneton and Springton in the Eden Valley wine region. This region provides ideal ripening conditions for the riesling grape and has a unique track record of exceptional ageing potential for the variety. The Eden Valley riesling vineyard is planted on sandy loam over gravel and bedrock with patches of clay. The wine is named after ancestor Julius Henschke, a highly acclaimed artist and sculptor.

TASTING: Pale straw with lime hues. Intense, lifted aromas of lime leaf and citrus zest supported by lively jasmine floral notes, both salts and crushed herbs. The palate is tight and focused, displaying dominating lime flavours and ripe citrus, beautiful purity, and mineral notes leading to a long, intense, crisp finish with steely acidity.

95 Points, Special Value Wine: James Halliday - The Wine Companion - "A blend of Pyrenees and Coal River (Tasmania) grapes, fermented in used French barriques and aged on lees in barrel. Skilled winemaking has taken full advantage of the inherent complexity of the process, yet kept the tropical fruit flavours fresh and vibrant, the finish long and clean." From The Winery: Displaying a crisp straw colour with a fine green hue, the wine exhibits bright aromas of white peach with a complexing herbal spice and delicate oak notes. Being well balanced with a luscious front palate that extends into a mouth-filling grapefruit acid, this wine lingers with a succulent clean finish. With passionfruit flavours that softly dissipate into the melon and honeydew, this wine is a true representation of the fumé style.

ANDERT Rulander (Pinot Gris) 2013 Bottle - BO (los)	4	£24.95	48 % £12.00	FINAL REDUCTION to Clear ONLY £12.95
Pinot Gris is called Rulander in Austria and Germany. We are in the wild biodynamically-farmed vineyards belonging to Michael and Erich Andert. This version takes us to Princic country, possessing an exquisite salmon colour with amber highlights. The nose, or whatever we choose to call it, is (sweet)meaty and a little bit smoky, the palate is smooth and almost velvety with suggestions of pink grapefruit, yet also salty with a bitter almond note on the finish.
All Andert's wines have a faintly medicinal bitter, fennel-inflected after-taste. This may be due to the fact that the vines share their space with wild fennel and many other plants and herbs that have the same anise profile. They also possess what we like to describe as "natural energy". Easy in themselves or with a relaxed intensity, not inviting judgement, but utterly and vitally redolent of the vineyards from which they are born.

The Domaine Bruno SORG was created in 1965 by Renée and Bruno SORG in Ingersheim, the village where Renée SORG was born. Since the outset, the entire production has been bottled. The wines are made exclusively with grapes grown on site. The richest and most complex are the three "Grand Cru" varieties, namely the Pfersigberg and Eichberg in Eguisheim and the Florimont in Ingersheim. Powerful and rich, this is proper Pinot Gris. Beautifully elegant, with lashings of ripe fruit and a huge dry finish. This is stunning, ripe and amazing with spicy foods.
DOMAINE TRAPET Gewurztraminer Beblenheim 2013 Bottle (los)	3	£22.95	26 % £6.00	Reduced to Clear at ONLY £16.95
This is a variation on the Savagnin rose quoted by the botanist Bock in 1551 in his Kreuterbuch. The genius of Alsatian grape growers knows no bounds, and the countless categories of Savignon result in a muskier variety after the war of 1570, the aromatic rose pleasure. The best quality is only obtained in the hills below the Vosges, where the climate is right. It is planted on the estate in the soils of Ritterpfed at Zellenberg and the Sonnenglanz great vintage at Beblenheim. These full bodied, well structured wines are creamy and have a powerful spicy floral aroma. ALPHONSE MELLOTT Sancerre 'La Moussiere' 2014/15 Bottle (los) (ORGANIC)

Winemaker Notes: Lively like the look in your eyes, sweet like a kiss. Very fine gold colour with a green sheen. Its nose has a flowery fruity bouquet. Being pure and honest it is seducer from the outset. Flowers flit around, trees bend down to give their most beautiful fruits to us and the air we breathe is so sweet in this garden full of sweetness that it is intoxicating. Lively, supple and welcoming taste. Predominantly honest in a welcoming balance, it reflects a pretty grape, a fine harvest in the singing and laughter of the men and women pickers. It tells us of work well done in the divine order and Nature's kindness. It is fair, and all one expected and to cap it all there is happiness there.

Robert Parker "Displaying white fruit and floral aromas along with lemon flavors, it is very clear and smoky on the nose, which indicates a picture-book Sancerre. The wine is full-bodied, rich and round, a very intense and fruity, but also well-structured wine with firm grip and authentic character."

"Blank Canvas represents my story as a winemaker. It is an endeavour that is entirely my own expression of winemaking, is from my own funding, and is exclusively my risk." The 'Blank Canvas' is the vineyard and the variety, the winery the brush and palette (no pun intended) at the winemaker's disposal, all the while defined by the scientific grounding Matt laid at university and has built upon over the past 23 years. His aim is to break some rules with the Blank Canvas wines. This is what sets the Blank Canvas wines apart. Tasting: A wine of wonderful, pure aromatics this Grüner shows classic notes of mandarin and ripe peach with an underlying trace of white pepper. The oak featuring in the wine is only obvious if you are told about it – it is there to provide richness and weight to the mid-palate, which is why we chose large French oak puncheons to do the job. | Bright, light straw-yellow colour with green hues, lighter on rim. This has a softly concentrated nose with well packed stonefruit, citrus fruit and mealy aromas melded harmoniously with complexing flint and mineral elements, nuts and a creamy barrel-ferment note. Medium-full bodied, the palate features a firm and dense core of stonefruits, citrus fruits and mealy elements, layered with flint, mineral and oaky detail. The mouthfeel has weight and vinosity, the palate flowing along a smooth, near creamy line. A fine phenolic thread and lacy acidity balances the fruit and barrel-ferment richness, and the wine carries to a slender, lingering dry finish with citrus nuances. This is a well-concentrated, weighty Chardonnay with nutty and citrus flavours, and a creamy, fine-textured line. Match with seafood, poultry and pork dishes over the next 4-5 years. | | | | |

White Wine

Portugal

QUINTA DE LA ROSA 'douROSA' Branco/White 2014 Bottle (los)

Douro white grape varieties traditionally used for making white port. This douROSA white wine is mainly blended from Codega do Larinho (44%), Rabigato (27%), Viosinho (26%) and Gouveio (3%) varieties. The grapes come from nearby vineyards with a higher altitude, above the Douro Valley, than Quinta de la Rosa. The vineyards are especially identified by wine maker, Jorge Moreira, for their quality and good acidities.

TASTING NOTES: Expressive white fruit aromas with noticeably minerality. On the palate, plenty of richness and citric fruit flavours, with a lively and very pleasant finish.

SERVING SUGGESTIONS: This white wine is ready for drinking now. Serve chilled as an excellent refreshing aperitif. It is a perfect with food and can easily be drunk with a wide variety of different foods from chicken to seafood and fish. The wine has been very popular and we tend to sell out easily.

South Africa

DE WETSHOF Unwooded Chardonnay 'Bon Vallon' 2014 HALF (los)

Danie de Wet pioneered the noble white varieties of Europe in South Africa and today the estate of 200 hectares specialises in superior white wines exclusively. Thus, De Wetshof, the first registered wine estate in the Robertson region, made South Africa's first Chardonnay Superior, Sauvignon Blanc and Rhine Riesling Superior. Today Danie specialises in Chardonnay.

In the cellar the wine is tank fermented and then left on its lees (SUR LIE) for a few months. This is a beautifully crafted, elegant wine. It has crisp fresh citrus flavours and a creamy aftertaste with elegant fruit and a long yeasty, nutty finish.

MENADE Antonio Sanz Sauvignon Blanc Rueda 2014 Bottle (los)

The harvest of the grapes from organic farming takes place during the cool after hours. The must comes in stainless steel cooling tanks where maceration takes place under permanent control. The fermentation is carried out at low temperatures of 16-18C ° slowly and using natural, autochthonous yeasts to have an authentic wine of character. The wine then ripened for several months in cooled tanks and a small portion in used barriques on the fine yeast before this is clarified and bottled on natural grounds. This gives the wine more complexity, a juicy-creamy body as well as much finesse.

Liqueurs & Other

MANDARIN Napoleon 'Grande Cuvée' Bottle (70cl) 38.0%alc (10s)

Mandarine Napoléon is an exquisite, well-balanced blend of mandarins and refined 10-year-old aged cognac. Dating back to the early 1800s, and its roots stemming from the hands of Napoléon Bonaparte, the liqueur's history is as rich as its distinctive flavor. Only the freshest mandarin peels from Sicily are used and these have a fine peel with very little pith, resulting in plenty of zest. Following the maceration in Alcohol Mandarine Napoleon is triple distilled to produce an intense essence of mandarin. Its complexity derives from its secret combination of mandarin and twenty one botanicals.
