Nose: a very rounded, honeyed nose, with lots of butter pastry and marzipan. Toffee and demerara sugar. Also hints of orange oils and a tangy note that holds the middle between mint and iodine. Soft hints of varnish. There's a toasted, earthy side to it as well but overall it is very much a rounded nose.

Mouth: big and creamy, not as dry, starting on almonds, vanilla and toffee, with quite a glyceric mouthfeel. Relatively low acidity, but there is a balanced zesty note, as well as a quiet salty note.

The Moscatel Emilin is part of the Solera Familiar range from Lustau. The Moscatel grapes for this wine are grown in a vineyard called Las Cruces in the sandy soil near Chipiona, close to the coast, where Lustau grows only Moscatel and Pedro Ximénez. Like Pedro Ximénez, most of the Moscatel grapes are laid out in the sun to dry. However Lustau chooses to maximize the sugars by picking the grapes as late as possible, thus reducing the need for a long drying period (which holds a risk of rotting). Fermentation is arrested early, in order to keep the natural sugar of the grapes. Moscatel Emilin is around 8 years old on average.

People always remember Pedro Ximénez when talking about sweet sherry, but Moscatel is often overlooked. It can be just as sweet (this one holds around 200 g/l of sugar) but it is usually a little different, often more fragrant and a tad more refined.

The 2012 Petaluma Coonawarra is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon (76%), Merlot (20%) and Shiraz (4%), all from our Evans Vineyard planted in 1968. This Cabernet dominant wine has black currant with a hint of plum and is an elegant style with spice and cedar and wonderful soft sandy tannins. Mocha and a lovely hint of Cabernet mint and leaf herald the 2012 Coonawarra as a wine to enjoy with a few years in bottle, but one that will age gracefully for many years, as so many Petaluma Coonawarra reds have. No 2011 Coonawarra was made, the vintage being a wipe out in most of Southern Australia.

CHANGYU MOSER XV Cabernet Sauvignon 2008 Bottle (los)

"One's first impulse to judge this wine simply for its novelty value, but that is to do it a disservice. Empirically, in the context of Chinese red wines, it is outstanding, but how does it stack up internationally? Priced in line with, for example, a relatively serious red Bordeaux, there is plenty of Cabernet character, pure fruit, no earthiness, well-integrated oak and, most importantly ripe tannins and a rewarding concentration. In a blind tasting of its Bordeaux peers, it would not be embarrassed, but neither would it be the best. It may be at the top end of its price bracket, but it's in a field of one at the moment, and gives a fascinating glimpse of a possible future. The first vintage is 2008, 90% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Merlot, with 12 months in French oak. Yields are low, the fruit is site selected, there a sorting table (the first in China), classic Bordelais treatment."

| THE WINE ADVOCATE #186 (Dec 2009) David Schildknecht - 92 pointsChristian Gouges opines that this monopole site offers an especially favorable cross-section of the slope, its clay-rich lower portions promoting good acid retention and structure while The Gouges share of 2006 Nuits-St-Georges Les Pruliers – like their Clos des Porrets St-Georges – runs from the clay-rich bottom of this cru up to its stony top (where, notes Christian Gouges, working the vines is downright dangerous) – which may help account for its complexity. Ripe, rich cherry, plum and lingonberry retain lovely clarity to a wealth of somehow ore-like as well as chalky mineral nuances. Like the Porrets, this has abundant but fine tannins and comes off both dense and texturally silken. It finishes in a slightly cooler, more austere and overtly mineral vein, but with invigorating tartness and sheer refreshment that keep it enticing. I would however be only very slightly less-inclined to enjoy this young than I would other wines of this collection, while expecting it to perform well for the better part of a decade.DRINK NOW |                       |                       |  |

It is both sumptuous and stylish, and has been hugely improved by the Rions' dedicated work in the vineyard.Jasper Morris MW, Berrys' Burgundy Director Patrice and son Maxime Rion are tweaking their techniques a little by reducing new oak and slightly increasing extraction in the pre-fermentation stage. This delicious old vine bottling of Nuits St Georges comes from Les Plateaux vineyard, tucked in behind the town itself. Deep raspberry notes, a lovely crunchy texture. Very long for the appellation, with great ageing potential. Jasper Morris, MWDespite this being a very late season, Patrice compares 2013 to the fruit of early vintages such as 2007 and 2011, but with more stuffing. It also reminds him of 1980, a particularly successful vintage chez Rion. The 2013 crop is a small one though, a touch more than 2012 but less than 2011. | The Wine Advocate - "The 2007 Chateauneuf du Pape Les Origines (50% Grenache, 30% Mourvedre, and 20% Syrah aged in small new oak barrels) is somewhat of an anomaly with such an amount of new oak, but it never seems to show given the wine-s concentration and richness. This may be the estate-s finest example of this cuvee, which generally represents 1,200-1,500 cases, all from their holdings in the northern sector of the appellation. A saturated purple color is accompanied by aromas of smoke, camphor, creme de cassis, licorice, and blueberries, amazing concentration, a full-bodied texture, and a stunningly long finish. The tannins are present, but silky, and the vintages freshness and vibrant fruit are evident. Powerful and loaded with substance, but at the same time endearingly elegant and ethereal, it will benefit from another 2-3 years of bottle age, and should drink well for 15+."                                      |                      |                       |  |

| Robert Parker notes that Domaine Roger Sabon is one of only five "Excellent" Lirac producers. Son-in-law Didier Negron recently took the winemaking reins here after Jean-Jacques Sabon passed away in 2012, and the tradition of excellence very much continues. Sabon's Lirac has been a favourite of ours for several vintages, and this shows huge potential. Underlying raisiny bramble-fruit and southern spice, which will open out nicely in the coming months. A more elegant style of wine with great poise and elegance. BLEND : Grenache is predominant as with all the wines of the Domaine. It is blended with Syrah, Mourvedre and Carignan. ##### ALPHA ZETA Valpolicella 'V' 2014/15* Bottle (los)

Alpha Zeta was started in 1999 when leading New Zealand winemaker, Matt Thomson, set out to produce a range of modern, fruit driven wines from the hills outside Verona. The aim was to work with growers (rather than buy bulk wine, which is standard among most wines from Verona at this price) to obtain ripe grapes and then, using Matt's expertise, preserve these flavours in the finished wines. The vineyards are situated in the hills outside Verona. Matt selected those in excellent moderate vigour sites where the growers had significantly reduced the crop. This Corvina blend shows lovely depth of colour, with perfumes of fresh black cherries. On the palate the wine is soft and ripe, with a light, youthful freshness which lifts its cherry pie flavours and accentuates its perfume. The palate has good length with a hint of cherry chocolate on the finish.

CASTELLO DI BUTTRIO 'Mon Rouge' (Merlot/ Cabernet/Refosco) 2013 Bottle (los)

Mon Rouge is a blend of three wines in which each component lends varietal character to a whole that is more than the sum of its parts. Merlot's intense fruit is set off by the tannic extract of Cabernet and signs off with all the depth of a Refosco-led back palate.

Invitingly soft tannins are beautifully complemented by approachability as the territory-true sensory profile lays out berry fruits on the nose and delicate spice on the palate.

CASTELLO DI BUTTRIO 'Pignolo' 2010 Bottle (los)

Pignolo has had a difficult history. It graced Friuli's tables from the early Middle Ages before almost dying out altogether, a victim of low yields and and its own physiological sensitivity.

Recovered by clonal selection, the pignolo vine was replanted in the Buttrio area and in 1995 it finally found a home in the Colli Orientali DOC.

The grape's deep purple skin harbours an abundance of assertive tannins while its bouquet is redolent of ripe wild berries, aromatic herbs and fine spices.

Although the varietals are the same as Saletta, a significantly greater percentage of Merlot in the Borgo Saletta adds fruit aromatics and suppleness. The focus is on fine tannins in order to provide more immediate drinkability.

The wine is aged for just under a year in oak barrels that have already seen 1-2 years of use for the cellaring of Saletta, which contributes complexity without the more marked definition of new oak.

This eighteenth century Douro wine estate is actually one of the most modern-looking in Portugal. Although the team uses the traditional panopoly of indigenous grapes, their methods are bang up to date and the results are nothing short of sensational.

This wine is made from Touriga Nacional which is one of the same grape varieties used to make port. It is a full bodied and rich wine with flavours of spicy bramble fruit.

Tinedo is the Alvarez-Arenas' family estate. It has been dedicated to the production of wine in a traditional way for generations. The estate is made up of 49 hectares of vineyards in the heart of La Mancha. Manuel, Esperanza and Amparo Álvarez-Arenas, have lead from 2002 the renovation of the vineyard and the winemaking concepts behind Tinedo's wines, looking for the full expression of the oenological potential of the terroir. Tinedo has reinforced its social and environmental concerns, encouraging the sustainability as a model of agricultural, rural, and social development related to the culture of wine. Tasting Note: Attractive purple cherry tone, clean, with hues of blue and a good intensity. Expressive and well defined tertiary aromas (tobacco, cinnamon, chocolate), fruity (glace strawberries, dry apricots and plums) and spicy (liquorice). A well balanced palate, with a good concentration, fresh tannins, red fruits (strawberries, cherries) and a tertiary finish (tobacco, liquorice). Food Matching: Cheese, pasta and rice dishes.

A delicate pale pink, rose-petal colour, our Rose has a very floral nose and is extremely fine on the palate, rounded yet balanced without tending to fat. There is just enough acidity and a long clean finish, leaving the impression of a perfect freshness. (It was our aim to preserve freshness and finesse rather than tend to the softer, weightier style of many Roses, retaining a high level of residual sugar and a strong alcohol content.) Lively, flowery and fruity, our Rose has to be tasted fresh (about 8 degrees C).

The Château Ollieux-Romanis is a magnificent property, surrounded by old vines and olive trees or 'Ollieux'. It has been owned by the same family since 1860. The oldest Carignan vines were planted in 1896. Wine is an important part of the family history. Jacqueline Bories was probably the first woman to vinify wine in the Languedoc at a time when wine was a man's affair. Avoiding the temptations of fashion, she developed the potential of traditional grape varieties often considered as being of a low quality level : Carignan, Cinsault, Grenache gris, Alicante. This is a rosé with a difference! Bright salmon in colour with ruby shades. Beautifully structured with delicate tannins, this rosé, made from the Cinsault grape is soft and fresh with a touch of spice, black berries and grapefruit. Try this with Méditerrananean or exotic dishes.

BIRICHINO Malvasia Bianco 2013/14* Bottle (los)

Birichino, pronounced biri-kino, is a very interesting project. Founded in Santa Cruz in 2008, and drawing on a combined 35 years making and selling wine in California, France, and Italy, owners and winemakers Alex Krause and John Locke are focused on attaining the perfect balance of perfume, poise, and puckishness with a particular fondness for varieties that provide enormous pleasure and re-establish a direct connection to the sensual world (at least, that's what they say). John worked from 1990 to 2007 with the legendary Randall Grahm of Bonny Doon Vineyard, with (the equally legendary) André Ostertag of Domaine Ostertag in Alsace in 1993, and with a host of small producers across Italy and south-western France. This Malvasia Bianca lives up to the house style. Incredibly floral, with ripe tropical fruits, jasmine and elderflowers on the nose, the wine is refreshingly dry on the palate, with green apple, yellow plum, and ginger. Try this with spicy Asian dishes like pad Thai or Peking duck.

THE SPEE'WAH Houseboat Chardonnay 2015/16* Bottle (los)

Tales of Crooked Mick have been told around bushfires since the first European's started getting lost in the outback. They tell of a wild, larger than life character that lived in the Spee'Wah – among locations used over time is an area of the country on the border between New South Wales and Victoria, close to the Speewa cable ferry that crosses the Murray River north of Swan Hill, and home to the vines that made these wines.

Elizabeth Richardson is the winemaker behind the label and she has a trophy cabinet stuffed full of medals from her stint at Capel Vale in WA. Liz has one aim and one aim only: to ensure you reach for a second and third glass. Her knowledge of the Murray Darling vineyards is second to none and her contact book of growers is the envy of her peers. She has cherry picked parcels of outstanding fruit to make these wines and the quality shines through as soon as the bottles are opened.

Made from Chardonnay grapes, this wine is medium bodied with aromas of tropical fruit. On the palate there are crisp citrusy flavours and some nuttiness which comes from the oak aging this wine has undergone.

Pinot Gris is called Rulander in Austria and Germany. We are in the wild biodynamically-farmed vineyards belonging to Michael and Erich Andert. This version takes us to Princic country, possessing an exquisite salmon colour with amber highlights. The nose, or whatever we choose to call it, is (sweet)meaty and a little bit smoky, the palate is smooth and almost velvety with suggestions of pink grapefruit, yet also salty with a bitter almond note on the finish.
All Andert's wines have a faintly medicinal bitter, fennel-inflected after-taste. This may be do with the fact that the vines share their space with wild fennel and many other plants and herbs that have the same anise profile. They also possess what we like to describe as "natural energy". Easy in themselves or with a relaxed intensity, not inviting judgement, but utterly and vitally redolent of the vineyards from which they are born.

This is a variation on the Savagnin rose quoted by the botanist Bock in 1551 in his Kreuterbuch. The genius of Alsatian grape growers knows no bounds, and the countless categories of Savignion result in a muskier variety after the war of 1570, the aromatic rose pleasure. The best quality is only obtained in the hills below the Vosges, where the climate is right. It is planted on the estate in the soils of Ritterpfad at Zellenberg and the Sonnenglanz great vintage at Beblenheim. These full bodied, well structured wines are creamy and have a powerful spicy floral aroma. The wine is finally fined and gently filtered before bottling it following the lunar calendar ("fruit" day to get a wine on freshness and minerality. Their whites from Santenay are dry and full-bodied. ALPHONSE MELLOTT Sancerre 'La Moussiere' 2014/15 Bottle (los)	14	£24.95	20 % £5.00	Reduced to Clear at ONLY £19.95
Wine Advocate-Parker : Aromas of limes, yellow citrus, crushed stones, herbs, chamomile and honey lead the 2012 Sancerre Edmond to a refreshingly mineral, profound and pure palate of great expression and a stimulating length with citrus flavors. This was my first note of the 2012 Sancerre Edmond, which is dedicated to Alphonse Mellot's father Alphonse Edmond. The selection from the oldest (about 100 years old) Sauvignon Blanc grapes of the estate (on calcareous marl soils) is the purest and most precise expression of the kimmeridgian terroir because - and this is my finding of the second day - there is nothing more on the nose than ripe fruit aromas (nectarines again) based on and powdered with rock flour. This exceptional Sancerre was fermented and aged for 11 months in wooden vats and new demi-muid barrels, which initially seemed to add a further layer to this already very complex wine. However, the oak was completely absorbed by the minerality, which shines through even clearer the second day when Edmond became significantly more pure, transparent and naked. Its length, complexity and tension, though, remains unrivaled. This is a really powerful and expressive Sancerre but does neither lack purity nor finesse, thrill nor aging potential. I would definitely buy it to give it 8-10 years although it is already accessible.

Clos de Nouveys is the essence of Vouvray. Indeed this 25 acre estate is found just outside the eponymous sleepy village. While the vines are on average 35 years old in this part of the Loire Valley, it's a comparative young upstart, considering the Vouvray appellation was one of the first to be officially recognised. The Borgo Selene wines are made and blended by Alberto Antonini at the Curatolo family winery and represent superb value for money. The name derives from the Greek goddess of the Moon, Selene, illustrating the influence the Greeks (who also brought the vine to Sicily) have had on the Mediterranean's largest island. Tasting Notes: Light, lemon-yellow in colour with a fresh, vivacious nose, fresh perfumes of apples and ripe pears with a hint of acacia flower. Crisp and lively on the palate with a fresh, dry finish. Food: Perfect as an aperitif, with a seafood platter or light pasta dishes.

CA' DEI FRATI Pratto (Lugana, Sauvignon Blanc, Chard) 2014 Bottle (los) 12 ~~£20.95~~ 19 % £4.00 Reduced to Clear at ONLY £16.95
The light golden colour gives way to perfumes of tropical fruit and a mineral hint characteristic of Ca' dei Frati lead into a dry, rich palate. Made from 60% Lugana with 20% Sauvignon Blanc adding a perfumed lift to the blend, the remaining 20% Chardonnay fruit rounds out the palate, giving it depth and weight. The oak ageing adds a touch of spice to the lingering tropical fruit finish. The Dal Cero family has transformed their Ca' dei Frati property into a model Italian estate over the past decade. When we first began buying their wines in 1987, they had 12 hectares of vineyard; today, they have 50 hectares. This increase in quantity has been matched by an increase in quality, and today they remain the best producers in Lugana, and rank as one of Italy's best producers of white wine.

No other wine could better represent the spirit of a region such as theirs. Friulano has an austere affinity with the land, crystalline clarity of character and a fascinatingly demure absence of ostentation yet on the palate it is welcoming and generously warm. An absolute wine. A wine that keeps its promises. Incisive minerality, reflecting soil and site climate.

Racy acidity makes this an excellent aperitif wine. Grapes: Tocai Friulano, Ribolla Gialla, Malvasia Istriana*

GRAN SASSO Trebbiano d'Abruzzo (White) 2015 Bottle (los) 2 ~~£8.95~~ 34 % £3.00 Reduced to Clear at ONLY £5.95

LATIUM MORINI Soave DOC 'Campo Le Calle' 2014 Bottle (los) 15 ~~£11.95~~ 42 % £5.00 Reduced to Clear at ONLY £6.95
Inspired by the quality of the wines produced by their neighbour, Romano dal Forno, the seven brothers and cousins who own Latium Morini decided not to sell their grapes to the locale Cantine Sociale, as their forefathers had for years but to make their own wines instead. Latium originates from the Latin name for their hometown, Illasi, which lies in the eastern part of the Valpolicella district. Today the winery cultivates 40 hectares with plots spread across Valpolicella and Soave. The appassimento technique of air drying grapes is used - not only in the production of Amarone and Valpolicella Superiore, but also in the single vineyard Soave Campo Le Calle, adding an intriguing level of complexity to the wines. Deliciously fresh and vibrant, aromatic with zingy fruit and lovely balance. 100% Garganega.

BLANK CANVAS Gruner Veltliner (Matt Thomson) - Marlborough 2013 Bottle (los) 73 — ~~£15.95~~ 31 % £5.00 Reduced to
Matt Thomson is a busy winemaker. He has worked over forty vintages in numerous wine regions around the world, and has worked with David Gleave since 1994. "Blank Canvas represents my story as a winemaker. It is an endeavour that is entirely my own expression of winemaking, is from my own funding, and is exclusively my risk." The 'Blank Canvas' is the vineyard and the variety, the winery the brush and palette (no pun intended) at the winemaker's disposal, all the while defined by the scientific grounding Matt laid at university and has built upon over the past 23 years. His aim is to break some rules with the Blank Canvas wines. This is what sets the Blank Canvas wines apart. Tasting: A wine of wonderful, pure aromatics this Grüner shows classic notes of mandarin and ripe peach with an underlying trace of white pepper. The oak featuring in the wine is only obvious if you are told about it – it is there to provide richness and weight to the mid-palate, which is why we chose large French oak puncheons to do the job. The result is a well-structured, luscious rendition of an Austrian classic. Clear at ONLY

CLOS HENRI Sauvignon Blanc 2014 Bottle (ORGANIC) (los) 36 — ~~£20.95~~ 21 % £4.50 Reduced to
A complex nose dominated by pineapple, guava on one hand, and chalk, flint on the other hand which reveals the minerality of this wine with a touch of lemon peel and lime. Tightly packed, lean flavour profile with an almost gold minerality – plenty of ripe, pithy fruits, honeysuckle and a meaty oatmeal quality. A serious old-world sauvignon with a dry finish. Clear at ONLY

STANLEY ESTATE Reserve Chardonnay 2014 Bottle(st) (los) 20 — ~~£19.95~~ 30 % £6.00 Reduced to
Bright, light straw-yellow colour with green hues, lighter on rim. This has a softly concentrated nose with well packed stonefruit, citrus fruit and mealy aromas melded harmoniously with complexing flint and mineral elements, nuts and a creamy barrel-ferment note. Medium-full bodied, the palate features a firm and dense core of stonefruits, citrus fruits and mealy elements, layered with flint, mineral and oaky detail. The mouthfeel has weight and vinosity, the palate flowing along a smooth, near creamy line. A fine phenolic thread and lacy acidity balances the fruit and barrel-ferment richness, and the wine carries to a slender, lingering dry finish with citrus nuances. This is a well-concentrated, weighty Chardonnay with nutty and citrus flavours, and a creamy, fine-textured line. Match with seafood, poultry and pork dishes over the next 4-5 years. Clear at ONLY

Portugal

QUINTA DE LA ROSA 'douROSA' Branco/White 2014 Bottle (los)

Douro white grape varieties traditionally used for making white port. This douROSA white wine is mainly blended from Codega do Larinho (44%), Rabigato (27%), Viosinho (26%) and Gouveio (3%) varieties. #### MENADE Antonio Sanz Sauvignon Blanc Rueda 2014 Bottle (los)

The harvest of the grapes from organic farming takes place during the cool after hours. The must comes in stainless steel cooling tanks where maceration takes place under permanent control. The fermentation is carried out at low temperatures of 16-18C ° slowly and using natural, autochthonous yeasts to have an authentic wine of character. The wine then ripened for several months in cooled tanks and a small portion in used barriques on the fine yeast before this is clarified and bottled on natural grounds. This gives the wine more complexity, a juicy-creamy body as well as much finesse.
