THE WINE ADVOCATE (97-99) The 2019 Lafite Rothschild is a blend of 94% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Merlot and 1% Petit Verdot, harvested from the 19th of September to the 7th of October. Deep garnet-purple in color, it rolls effortlessly out of the glass with compelling notions of baked black cherries, ripe blackberries and crème de cassis followed by hints of mocha, licorice, smoked meats and Sichuan pepper with a waft of eucalyptus. Medium-bodied, the palate is at once ethereally graceful and powerfully intense, featuring layer upon layer of profound smoky, savory flavors and decadently ripe fruit, framed by exquisite, silt-like tannins and just enough freshness, finishing with epic length. In terms of flavor profile, this is a surprisingly (atypically) hedonic, forward expression, with notably lower acidity/higher pH (the pH is 3.9). The alcohol is 13.4%, just a tick higher than the 2018 (13.3%). And yet, the tannins here are unmistakably Lafite, featuring all the tannic grace, finesse and densely pixilated poise fans will expect. What an exciting paradox for the palate—bravo!

<small>THE WINE ADVOCATE 97-99+ The 2019 Léoville Las Cases is a blend of 79% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc and 11% Merlot. Harvest began early for the Merlot, on the 18th of September, and the Cabernets were picked in October, finishing on the 8th of October. The IPT number (measurement of tannins) is 80—the same as 2018. The alcohol came at 14.02% (lower than 2018), but it does seem a little lower than this percentage, probably because the pH is a little lower this year, at 3.67. It is aging in French oak barriques, 90% new. The color is opaque purple-black, with a nose that unfurls slowly in the glass, beginning with vibrant, expressive black fruit notes of freshly crushed blackcurrants, ripe blackberries and fresh black cherries, followed by a beguiling array of floral and earth nuances—candied violets, lavender, fragrant soil, underbrush, crushed rocks and black truffles. The medium to full-bodied wine dances ever so gracefully on the palate, demurely revealing tightly wound layers of of bright, crunchy black fruits and tantalizing floral and mineral sparks, supported by a rock-solid structure of firm, finely grained tannins and fantastic tension, finishing with epic persistence. Although the style is completely different, the barrel sample is behaving a lot like the Haut-Brion sample was when I tasted it, in that it appears to be holding just that little bit extraback right now. I have to call it as I see it today, but I wouldn't be surprised if when I come back to taste this from bottle, it shows me all that and a lot more.</small>

The alcohol weighed in at 14.01% with a pH of 3.55 and an IPT of 75. It is aging in French oak barriques, 30% new. Managing director Pierre Graffeulle informed me that this wine is mainly a blend of the younger vines of Léoville Las Cases—three- to 20-year-old Cabernet Sauvignon vines—with some of the old Merlot (40-70 years) from the Las Cases enclosure. "It is a great combo to add old Merlot to young Cabernet Sauvignon!" he commented. Sporting a deep purple-black color, scents of Black Forest cake, blueberry preserves and ripe, black plums come bounding out of the glass, shadowed by hints of menthol, potpourri, spice cake and clove oil plus a waft of aniseed. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is packed with energetic, juicy black fruits, framed by amazing freshness and ripe, grainy tannins, finishing with a lively, invigorating lift. This is very different from the grand vin and yet is a wonderful alternative expression of the vineyard. Opaque ruby colour. The nose is inky-dark, bitter cherries and a dash of sweet spice. The palate is sweet on the entry then firmly built, its concentrated forest fruits currently framed by powerful oak tannins. A forceful, ambitious Bourgneuf. Nice! In our debriefing meeting with Edouard Moueix last week we collectively came to the conclusion that there is no better Pomerol at this price available on the market. It is stunning value but more importantly stunning quality with a beautiful gravel and fine clay soil and a perfectly managed vineyard of just 8 hectares (19.5 acres). Acquired by Christian Moueix in 1971, it is a jewel. Opaque ruby. Delectable nose of summer pudding and cream, fresh, sweetly plump. The palate is even more profound, beautifully extracted, with well cloaked tannins that make the sensual power deep without being coarse, and with a full chocolatey finish. This is quite simply delectable. CHATEAU LA TOUR A POMEROL Pomerol 2019 Wooden Case x 6 Bottles-PRE-RELEASE Pomerol Latour is one of the hidden legends of Pomerol, acquired by Madame Loubat (who also owned Petrus) in 1917 and made by Ets. JP Moueix since 1962. It is tiny, just 8 hectares (19.5 acres), with both clay and deep gravel soils that offer power and refinement. So beautiful was the Merlot in 2019 that this is, uniquely, a 100% Merlot wine and brilliant it is too. Deepest ruby, opaque indeed. The nose is arterially dark, with profound red fruits, very pure, almost pointed in their freshness and intensity. The palate is effortlessly balanced with a beautifully cloaked structure, a dark but subtle concentration and a sweet, sustained finish. CHATEAU BARRAIL DU BLANC Grand Cru 2019 Case x 12 Bottles-PRE-RELEASE	Pre-Release - See Neil Other Cases/Formats Available	£225.00
Another bullseye from the beloved "Barry White", a tiny 7 hectare (17 acres) vineyard situated in Saint-Sulpice de Faleyrens, but in the gravel and clay rather than pure sand part which gives this wine a subtle density. Opaque ruby in colour, a delectable nose of bright red fruits, super plump and ripe. The palate is sweet and juicy, supple and chunky with a higher Merlot (89%) content perhaps giving this a fatter, more approachable style. Very good indeed. By popular demand, we are reinstating our "Barrel of Barry" offer of 25 cases (a barrel equivalent) at the below price. The perfect way to avoid running out of this go-to drinker! THE WINE ADVOCATE 96-98 Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2019 Belair Monange comes sashaying out of the glass with a graceful hair-loss of fragrant red roses, cinnamon stick, cardamom and curmin seed notes over a core of Morello cherries, dark chocolate, wild blueberries and blackberry pie plus a touch of pencil shavings. The medium to full-bodied palate is just scrumptious, offering layers of perfumed black fruits and bright floral sparks, framed by exquisitely ripe, satiny tannins and an invigorating line of freshness, finishing on a lingering aniseed note. I have said this before but it is worth remembering that in the 19th and deep into the 20th century this was Saint-Émilion's greatest property. The ambition of Édouard Moueix, whose family home it is, is to bring back that reputation and 2019 is undoubtedly another step towards that objective. I actually scored it fractionally higher than both 2018 and 2016. Opaque ruby colour to the rim, wonderfully stylish, cedary rich nose of black and rich fruits, elegant and pure. The palate is flawlessly balanced with supple, effortlessly ripe bright fruit, profound but ripe tannins as if both embracing and shrugging off the vintage and a concentrated, powerful finish that wears its power lightly. Great wine. Corney &amp; Barrow Score 18(+) Recommended drinking from 2029 – 2036+
