 "Tasted single blind against its peers. The Clos Haut Peyraguey has a very fragrant, floral bouquet with a "patisserie" element: touches of lemon meringue, apricot and walnut. The palate is very well-balanced, quite taut and spicy on the entry, not quite as "flowing" as other 2007 Sauternes but very zesty and tensile. This is an excellent Sauternes that will need time to harmonize, but all the constituent parts are here. Tasted January 2011."*

PIERRE GAILLARD Condrieu Fleurs d'Autumn Venad.Tardive 2009 HALF LITRE (los) 3 ~~£35.95~~ 31% £11.00 FURTHER Reduced to Clear ONLY £24.95
Fantastically rich and decadent late harvest Condrieu, made from grapes picked in early November 2009, with plenty of selection (triage) going on in the vineyard, and botrytis evidenced in the grapes. Pierre was especially aware of maintaining the levels of acidity; this he has done with 5 grams providing a perfect foil for the impressive 200 grams of sugar. Viognier, hardly ascetic of temperament in its drier manifestations, is unsurprisingly in its element here, the main surprise coming of course from the freshness at the back of the palate to complement the honied richness at the front.

CORTE SANT'ALDA Recioto della Valpolicella 2011 HALF LITRE (ORG) (los) 2 ~~£34.95~~ 34% £12.00 FURTHER Reduced to Clear ONLY £22.95
*eRobertParker.com #209 (Oct 2013) Monica Lerner 88 points - Corte Sant'Alda presents a fine 2011 Recioto della Valpolicella with lingering tones of spice, mesquite and saddle leather that mingle with brighter aromas of candied cherry and blackberry syrup. The wine is dense and thick, with high levels of dry extract. It sits heavy on the palate. There's a note of sour astringency that stills needs to settle. Drink 2015-2020.
 Corte Sant'Alda is a flagship estate that makes some of the most opulent and age-worthy wines in Valpolicella. Marinella Camerani and her family farm according to biodynamic principles (they are Demeter-certified), and she likes to remind her visitors that olive and cherry groves are also a big part of the estate identity. Hers is a sustainable azienda agricola ("farming estate"), not just a vineyard, with a 360-degree perspective on all themes related to the land. The distinctive personality of the wines, and the consistent high quality make Corte Sant'Alda an important addition to anyone who collects fine Amaroni.*

*Complex and ample sweet wine with an outstanding freshness. On the nose intense notes of apricot and peach followed by sweet sensations of dried figs and honey, aromatic herbs and mineral notes. An extraordinary meditation wine, it's the ideal companion while reading a book or listening to music. We recommend it as sweet ending of an elegant dinner as well as your first date. Its fragrant sweetness makes it a perfect partner for blue cheeses and foie gras. We also recommend it with ricotta-filled desserts or gianduia chocolate. Made from Zibibbo grapes.
 Decanter World Wine Awards 2017 - 97 points - "Hugely intense nose with notes of honey, flowers, ripe tropical fruits and spice. Displays a powerful umami, mushroom flavour on the palate. The balance between sweetness and acidity borders on perfection. Will age well but hard not to drink now."*

VIGNAMAGGIO Vin Santo del Chianti Classico 2009 HALF (los) 7 ~~£24.95~~ 20% £5.00 Reduced to Clear ONLY £19.95
In Tuscany, Vinsanto is the wine of hospitality: in fact, it is often offered to guests as a before or after dinner drink or at the table as an accompaniment to pastries or marbled cheeses. This Vinsanto, produced from the Malvasia Lunga del Chianti and Trebbiano Toscano white grape varieties, represents a traditional Chianti wine. After a natural desiccation period of three months in a ventilated room, the grapes are pressed and the wine must obtained is placed without the skins, after a light filtering, in small 75-100 litre caratelli oak barrels where it ferments and where it remains for at least four years before it is bottled. The wine always produces a sugar residue, more or less significant depending on the vintage. THE WINE IS A GOLDEN YELLOW COLOUR WITH AMBER REFLECTIONS, THE FRAGRANCE IS TYPICALLY OF HONEY AND NUTS. IT IS WARM ON THE PALATE, INTENSE, DISTINCTLY SWEET BUT HELD TOGETHER BY A NICE ACIDITY.

NIEPOORT Late-Bottled-Vintage (LBV) 2009/12* HALF (los)

26 ~~£9.95~~ £2.00 20% Reduced to Clear ONLY £7.95

This is perhaps the most significant Premium Port of our range. Winemaker Dirk van der Niepoort calls this the "Little Brother" of our Vintage Port, as the origins of the grapes and vinification methods are identical. Taken from Ports made in the 2005 harvest, this Late Bottled Vintage however has extended cask maturation making it drinkable at a younger age, yet retaining the essence of its superior "sibling". Brilliant red colour with a wonderful aroma of dark fruits and a classy touch of chocolate. On the palate sweet grainy seductive tannins give the wine a superb elegance and interact well with the fruit and fine spiry finish. The wine can be enjoyed now, and will become more complex with further cellaring for a couple of decades. To fully benefit from its qualities we recommend it be decanted before serving. Serve with soft cheeses, mild blue cheese, dark chocolate desserts or a pepper steak!

EMILIO LUSTAU Moscatel 'Emilin' 37.5cl HALF (los)

4 ~~£10.95~~ £4.00 37% FURTHER Reduced to Clear ONLY £6.95

The Moscatel Emilin is part of the Solera Familiar range from Lustau. The Moscatel grapes for this wine are grown in a vineyard called Las Cruces in the sandy soil near Chipiona, close to the coast, where Lustau grows only Moscatel and Pedro Ximénez. Like Pedro Ximénez, most of the Moscatel grapes are laid out in the sun to dry. However Lustau chooses to maximize the sugars by picking the grapes as late as possible, thus reducing the need for a long drying period (which holds a risk of rotting). Fermentation is arrested early, in order to keep the natural sugar of the grapes. Moscatel Emilin is around 8 years old on average. People always remember Pedro Ximénez when talking about sweet sherry, but Moscatel is often overlooked. It can be just as sweet (this one holds around 200 g/l of sugar) but it is usually a little different, often more fragrant and a tad more refined.

CRUA CHAN Malbec - Altamira (Michelini Brothers) 2015 Bottle (los)

From the slightly off-the-wall, enviably talented husband and wife winemaking team of Gerardo Michelini and Andrea Mufatto, a Malbec that defines to a large extent the magic of Altamira, an amazing high altitude enclave of the Uco Valley. A sensitive nose full of minerality and fragrant flowers introduces an intense, sophisticated Malbec perfectly sown up in fine-grained tannins and laced through with delicate acidity.

"Crua Chan is a new addition to the Gen de Alma range, sourced entirely from Altamira and aged for six months in oak. It's a deliberately dry, sappy, savoury style of Malbec, with food friendly, grainy tannins and a long, refreshing finish." - 92/100 Tim Atkin ARGENTINA 2016 Special Report (2014 vintage)

23 ~~£18.95~~ £5.00 26% Reduced to Clear ONLY £13.95

Excepting the handful of undeniably superb examples from further south in Patagonia, this is not a varietal that has fared particularly well in Argentina, until now! Who else to up the ante, push the envelope, take the bull by the horns... but the inimitable Susana Balbo. Ever the innovator, one lovely and key detail here is that Susana has co-fermented 5% Viognier with these Pinot grapes, which are grown in Agrelo Oeste at around 900 masl. It's ever so appealing on the nose, lovely wild red fruits and that wonderful touch of forest floor that you often get from really good Pinot, soft and deliciously supple on the palate but not plump or jammy as can sometimes be the case with South American examples; a very accomplished and sophisticated wine.

EMMA ZUCCARDI Bonarda 'Icon' Valle de Uco 2013 Bottle (VEGAN) (los)

12 ~~£23.95~~ £5.00 21% Reduced to Clear ONLY £18.95

ROBERT PARKER The Wine Advocate - 92 points - Drink Date: 2015 - 2020 "A new label, the 2013 Emma Zuccardi Bonarda Altamira is sourced from the calcareous zone of Altamira in the Vale de Uco, a very different zone to Santa Rosa in east Mendoza and in fact it's one of the components used for the blend of the regular Emma Zuccardi Bonarda. If the blend is elegant, this is even more elegant and subtle, and has more floral and less tree bark notes, still a little earthy, full of character and personality. But if the nose is different, the palate is something else, extra fine, chalky tannins and a fine thread of acidity with a silky texture. The word that comes to mind is pure. This was fermented in plastic bins using full clusters and then put in used oak barrels. Sebastian Zuccardi is aware that they won't be able to produce this wine in every vintage given that the grape ripens late and in some vintages (like 2014 and 2015) this factor can be a problem. Only around 1,000 bottles were filled with this wine. It will be interesting to see how it ages, as this style of Bonarda was never made before and there is no track record."

Central Victoria, including the Pyrenees, is well known for making medium bodied, spicy, peppery styles of Shiraz. At Taltarni they use it to make a number of wines from the softer, blackberry and mocha T Series through to the richer, spicier single-vineyard Pyrenees. They always use a small amount of Viognier in our shiraz ferments, a classic Rhone technique to add lift and silky mouth-feel. They also make a Shiraz from a single vineyard in Heathcote, which is more typically Australian in style and shows the 'choc-mint' characters typical of this region.

BELVEDERE Valpolicella Superiore Ripasso 2015 Bottle 73 ~~£12.95~~ £6.00 46% £6.95
Forward and fragrant, with exotic aromas and a sensuous, luscious palate of cherry conserve, vanilla and soft black pepper, intermingled with hints of molasses and woodsmoke. Mouthfilling, broad and dense, with a long, satisfying finish. Savour on its own or drink with a cheese platter or pappardelle and meatballs.
The Ripasso method is a Venetian winemaking speciality whereby juvenile Valpolicella is 're-passed' over the dried grape skins remaining from the Amarone fermentation. The Valpolicella stays in contact with this pomace for a week or two and, because the skins are still warm and rich in sugar, a second alcoholic fermentation occurs. The 'mongrel' wine that results is more structured, richer and closer in style to an Amarone than basic Valpolicella.

The grape variety Frappato has been around on the island of Sicily quite a while and it is often blended with Nero d'Avola, today frequently disappearing into Cerasuolo di Vittoria, Sicily's first DOCG wine.
TASTING: The colour is like a warm ruby, not especially dense but bright and truly red, without blue or purple tones, even though it is still a young wine. The aromas are charming: fragrant wild strawberries and the merest hint of candied orange peel and light spice, maybe nutmeg or cinnamon. The polished texture is silky but definite, with a fine balance of clear fruit and structure (tannins and acidity) to give it depth and length. It has that lovely sweetness of fruit that you get from the best examples of Pinot Noir (though it doesn't taste like Pinot) and the same apparent lightness and freshness even though it fills the mouth with flavour and scent. It is unoaked, complex and layered, juicy but not simple. Simply delicious. LOW IN SULPHITES.

A wine with great ageing potential, the 2011 has a perfumed nose of crushed rose petals and sweet strawberries with deeper black currant and morello cherry characters in the background. The palate is rich and layered with gorgeous, dark cherry fruit flavours balanced by smooth, velvety tannins and refreshing acidity. Exotic spices, truffles and a hint of dark chocolate add a further layer of depth and complexity. This very complex wine will be delicious to drink in a few years and will age well for another decade or two. Drink from 2018.

*'Medium with a hint of amber. Highly complex, scented nose combines red plum, cherry, strawberry, clove, medicinal herbs and a hint of orange zest. Intensely flavored, juicy and tightly wound, with lovely cut and definition to the red fruit and spice flavors. Very concentrated, tactile wine whose firm tannic spine will require at least several years of cellaring. Finishes with terrific lift.' Stephen Tanzer, 93+ Points

'Super-ripe black cherries, plums, spices, menthol and licorice are front and center in Luciano Sandrone's 2015 Dolcetto d'Alba. This is an especially ripe, flamboyant style, even for the year. Readers should plan on giving the 2015 quite a bit of air, as it is quite reduced, even by the standards of Dolcetto, a grape that naturally tends to be reductive. With some aeration, the wine cleans up and flavors gain both brightness and overall pop.' - Antonio Galloni, Vinous Media

'The 2006 Barolo Parafada is another gorgeous wine from Massolino in this important vintage. Here, too, the fruit is incredibly primary but in the Parafada the French oak has added a dimension of explosiveness and volume that is captivating. Hints of spices and flowers hint at the inner sweetness that should develop in bottle. The percentage of French oak (35%) has come way down in this bottling, which gives the fruit a better chance to shine. I loved this powerful, dense Barolo.' Anticipated maturity: 2016-2026. There is now little doubt that 2010 was the Brunello di Montalcino vintage of a lifetime. Brunello di Montalcino is one of Italy's most famous and exciting wines. The very best Brunellos can sit at the high table in terms of the world's greatest. The 2010 vintage shows Brunello at its very best - these are wines to fill the cellar with. THE CRITICS WERE UNANIMOUS IN THEIR PRAISE - One of the first to publish was James Suckling who called 2010 Brunello "the greatest modern vintage of Italy's most famous wine region", and "a new benchmark for Tuscany's icon wine". The Wine Advocate's Monica Lerner was similarly enamoured, writing that "This is shaping up to be an iconic vintage" whilst Walter Speller, Italian expert for jancisrobinson.com, writes: "In Montalcino 2010 is truly an excellent vintage."

This is a truly delicious wine that exceeds my expectations. I love the way it takes full command of the slightly bolder and more opulent dark fruit aromas produced in this hot vintage. Black cherry, plum and crème de cassis converge on the bouquet. Grilled herb, forest floor, licorice and exotic spice play supporting roles. The finish offers moderate acidity on the Sangiovese scale. This means the wine is much fresher and more tonic than most Tuscan reds. The finish is long and silky.

JAMES SUCKLING 97 points

A sexy and silky riserva with dried fruit, blueberry and cedar character. Full body, firm tannins and long and gorgeous finish. So linear and precise. Chocolate-covered cherry center palate. Terrific young wine. Best riserva ever from here. Better in 2018.

QUINTA DE LA ROSA Rose 2015 Bottle (los)

The terroir in the Douro is still largely unexplored and by making wines with balance, harmony and equilibrium from our vineyards, we try to enable the grapes to express themselves in the bottle. Our style is to make well defined wines without too much extraction, tannin or oak and with good freshness and minerality. The 2015 rosé continues in the 'lighter' style to previous years. They allowed much less skin contact to the free run juice so that the rosé is somewhat paler. The resulting wine still has a good structure and attractive red fruit flavours with a touch of wild strawberry. Totally dry in the mouth, the wine has great freshness and pleasing acidity. Serve chilled, as an excellent refreshing aperitif. Given its structure, it is a perfect with food and can easily be drunk when eating summer salads, fish, chicken and other white meats.

A wine with oak and creaminess, but isn't a wood and butter bomb. Bold fruit, not fruit candy. We found the perfect blend that will make everyone smile. BEST BUY! - World Wine Championship 04/2016

WINEMAKER NOTES - "The 2014 vintage for Chardonnay was much like the 2012 vintage, showing delicacy and finesse over structure and intensity. With this vintage both oak impact and malo-lactic influence were kept to a minimum, allowing for the wine to show its noble heritage. The Chardonnay was fermented and aged in 50% French oak and 50% stainless steel, creating a wine both authentic and wonderfully balanced. The taste has a full entry and continues with delicate melon and citrus flavors. One is immediately struck with complex and racy notes; aromas of light pineapple, sweet spice, vanilla, honeysuckle and minerality. The wine finishes with a smooth texture, delicate flavors and a long, bright finish." FOOD PAIRINGS: Perfect with seafood, chicken, and your favorite cheeses.

SCHEID FAMILY WINES Sauvignon Blanc 'District 7' 2015 Bottle (los)

12 — ~~£14.95~~ 27% £4.00 Reduced to Clear ONLY £10.95

California is divided into 17 grape crush districts, encompassing a wide range of climate, terrain and soil types. District 7 is situated in Monterey County, home to world-class vineyards and exceptional wines. District 7, aka Monterey County, has the longest growing season of all of the districts, a result of the chilled marine air from the Monterey Bay that rushes down the Salinas Valley each day. Sauvignon Blanc is ultra-sensitive to climate and grapes from vineyards that are just a few miles apart can impart very different taste characteristics. The brisk and windy conditions in the northern estate vineyard bring out the grassy and herbal traits of this varietal, while the estate vineyard located about 20 miles south, which has a little more sunshine and warmth, brings out the fruity melon flavours. This Sauvignon is full of citrus aromas, grapefruit and tropical fruit with hints of herbal notes. Medium bodied, crisp acidity with bright lingering tropical fruit finish. Food Matching - Simple seafood, herbal-prepared white meat dishes, and spicy, ethnic cuisines.

JIJILI Chenin Blanc (Michelini Brothers) 2015/16* Bottle 10.5% LOW SULPHUR (los)

8 — ~~£15.95~~ 25% £4.00 Reduced to Clear ONLY £11.95

It's not every day a wine gives you a hard slap in the face then tries to stick its tongue down your throat. That's exactly what happened the first time we tasted this citrus temptress. Some early picking partly explains the delicious dry slap (and low alcohol of just 10.5%), with whole bunches pressed and juice fermented in cement eggs, with extended lees contact and no adjustments whatsoever, no filtering or fining before bottling. Anyway, Chenin can't achieve what would normally be regarded as 'full ripeness' on these very high altitude wines. The wine is quite cloudy and virtually sulphur free, with aromas of green cider apples and wild herbs; arid rather than dry, and yet with a beguiling richness somehow on the palate, a lovely fine waxy texture. All in all, it's a bloody miracle the wine is drinkable let alone utterly delicious, which it is. Another uncompromising statement from the wonderfully humble and talented husband and wife team of Gerardo and Andrea Michelini. Don't dally, they don't make a lot of this. LOW SULPHUR.

SUSANA BALBO Signature White Blend (Sauv /Semillon/Torrontes) 2015 Bottle (los)

6 — ~~£16.95~~ 35% £6.00 FURTHER Reduced to Clear ONLY £10.95

We were asked to taste this blind and we did identify the Semillon, and the Sauvignon Blanc, but what was providing that exotic richness on the nose; Riesling? No. Torrontés. 33% of each varietal is separately barrel fermented then blended and rested in those barrels for a further 4 months. The oak is delicate, the fruit is complex and explosive, run through with delicious acidity, steely and nervous, and we suspect this wine will age very well indeed, if it lasts that long. The grapes are from the Uco Valley, naturally. 'A mould-breaking, low alcohol cuvée of Torrontés, Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon, all from the Uco Valley and two thirds fermented in concrete eggs. Grapefruit, gooseberry and struck match notes are complemented by a hint of oak on the Torrontés. One of the country's best whites in year one.' 94/100 Tim Atkin ARGENTINA 2016 Special Report (2015 vintage)

THE WINE ADVOCATE Robert Parker (30th Jun 2016) #225 - 94 points

Drink: 2020 - 2040

'The coy, youthfully mute 2015 Riesling Polish Hill has a mineral and wet pebble laced nose over notes of lime leaves, yuzu and green mango. The dry, light-bodied palate is positively charged with electric citrus fruit that carries straight through the very, very long finish. It really needs 4-5 years in bottle before it enters its drinking window.'

Jeffrey Grosset established his winery in 1981 in the historic township of Auburn, Clare Valley, 100 kilometres north of Adelaide - and 2016 marks the 36th Anniversary. The winery is stylish and functional and reflects the attention to detail that extends to the Grosset estate-owned vineyards and winemaking. Jeff is best known for his iconic Rieslings - Polish Hill and Springvale - and he has almost single-handedly been responsible for the renaissance of Clare Valley Riesling. By combining a disciplined approach and decades of experience, Grosset consistently achieves the purest expression of variety and place.

"Deep ripe citrus on the nose, then much more bony and mineral on the palate. Lively and serious for a Petit Chablis, the length really extended by the creamy lees texture. Top Petit Chablis. De Morgenzon's high altitude vineyards command sweeping views of Table Mountain and Cape Point, where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet. Embracing the philosophy that a biodiverse and ecologically sensitive environment produces infinitely better grapes, proprietors Wendy and Hylton Appelbaum have established De Morgenzon as a 91 hectare garden interspersed with 55 hectares of carefully tended vineyards, where abundant wildflowers flourish between the vines. The vineyards are currently farmed naturally, and the estate is in the process of converting to organic farming. TASTING: Enticing vanilla, almond and tropical fruit aromas lead to a lush, concentrated palate. EBEN SADIE 'Palladius' 2014 Bottle (los)

Winemaker's Notes: 'The Palladius 2014 is a transition wine for us, since this was the first vintage for which we used clay amphorae. The wine has truly grown into its own and will move up a notch over the next two years: the 2016 vintage will be aged in clay and concrete in the new aging cellar dedicated to this wine. With Palladius our major goal is to try and get the maximum volume of compact fruit and texture together with the best potential volume of acidity and freshness. Compared to many white wines, the Palladius is more phynolic and textured and best enjoyed with food. We always encourage people to take the wine to picnics... but then it also needs decantation in the first 5 years from bottling, so there has to be a decanter in the picnic basket! This wine might be white in colour, but that is about the only characteristic that prevents the Palladius from being a red.' - Eben Sadie, Winemaker

GOOD HOPE WINERY Chenin Blanc 2013/14/15 Bottle (los)

Chenin is an extremely versatile grape, able to make excellent wines in many different guises, from Late harvest to Straw wine to classic dry Chenin and even Méthode Champenoise. It's an optimistic name for a winery and we have good hopes for this South African white. Made with Chenin Blanc which is one of the most planted white varieties in South Africa and widely successful. It's an intensely versatile grape that can age really well but this is a drink now prospect and really good with seafood or salads. Fruity and fresh with flavours of pear, sherbet and citrus, it provides a textured mouthfeel that's flinty and bright in limey flavours and finishes with good length.

HARTENBERG Chardonnay 2013/14* Bottle (los)

Made from five different clones, grapes are picked in the early morning by hand, over nine days. They are then crushed and immediately pressed, without any skin contact. After being transferred to House Toast French oak barrels for fermentation, the wine is stirred twice monthly for the first six months, then monthly thereafter. Their Chardonnay is always bottled in summer, after filtering.

CRITIC: "Seamlessly merges tangerine vibrancy with vanilla cream from barrel ferment. Textured and rich yet lean and focused throughout. A peaches and cream delight with a dry finish" - John Platter 2014

FOOD Suggestions: Creamy based foods, smoked chicken or duck, seared tuna with olive oil, lime juice and black pepper.

MAR DE FRADES Albarino 2015 (Ramon Bilbao) Bottle (los)

Pale yellow with greenish hues. On the nose notes of green peaches and lemon peel appear with grass and mineral tones. Very fresh and upfront flavours that are very expressive and with a long mouthfeel sensation with unmistakably saltiness and eucalyptus hues of Mar de Frades. Established in 1986, Mar de Frades is located in the Val do Salnés sub-zone. 100% Albariño wines are marketed under the Mar de Frades brand and are instantly recognizable by their distinctive tall blue glass bottle. The label has a thermo-sensitive logo so that when the bottle is chilled to the appropriate serving temperature (52-55° F), a blue ship magically appears, riding the waves on the bottle's label. A marvellous companion to fish and seafood dishes, such as scallops or oysters.

This product is featured in: Top 20 wines of 2016 from Decanter Panel Tastings, Five great value Albariño wines under £20, and Best Rias Baixas Albariño, 95 points Decanter Magazine (2015 vintage).

LILLET Rose Bottle (75cl) 17%alc (los) 11 ~~£17.95~~ 28% £5.00 Reduced to Clear ONLY £12.95
Maison Lillet's first new product in fifty years, Lillet Rose French Aperitif Wine is created from a blend of the red and white Grand Cru Bordeaux wine varietals used to produce Lillet Blanc and Lillet Rouge. This intricate combination includes Muscatel grapes for an elegant floral bouquet and Sauvignon Blanc for bright fruit characteristics, as well as Semillon, which lends structure and produces a lingering finish. The wine is then married with artisanal liqueurs crafted from sweet orange peels from Spain and bitter orange peels from Haiti, and a proprietary blend of fruit liqueurs sourced near and produced in Masion Lillet's distillery in Podensac. A small amount of Peruvian quinine is then added to the final blend. Its rose colour and taste profile are achieved by adding red fruit liqueurs and a very small amount of Lillet Rouge, using a traditional Champagne blending method to ensure a consistent colour throughout. The result is a bright, fruit-forward aperitif with notes of ripe berry, wildflower, melon and stone fruit, complemented by the traditional sweet and bitter citrus notes.

Vodka

XELLENT Swiss Vodka Bottle (los) 2 ~~£35.95~~ 25% £9.00 Reduced to Clear ONLY £26.95
The quality of any vodka depends on three crucial factors: The raw materials. The distillation process. The water. In Xellent, all three are something special. The basic ingredient used in Xellent, vodka is pure, top-quality Swiss rye. It is cultivated in the alpine foothills of central Switzerland, at altitudes of 500 to 800 metres, in fields no larger than two hectares and only the best is used. The varieties grown in this region are unusually resistant to disease and under constant supervision. The grain is harvested only when there has been relatively little rainfall and is then taken to a small country mill, just a few hundred metres from Distillerie Willisau SA (DIWISA). There, it is washed and ground before being delivered to DIWISA. The quantity may be limited, but the quality is all the better for it. To complete the process and give Xellent, Swiss vodka its perfect flavour, the spirit is now filtered several times. With all the clarity of pure crystal, only now will it satisfy the palate of the discerning connoisseur. Xellent, is a pure, slightly sweet-tasting 40% vol. spirit.
