

Sassicaia – 2017 – Pre-release offer

I take great pleasure in being able to announce the new releases from the Tenuta San Guido stable - 2017 Sassicaia, 2018 Guidalberto and 2018 Difese.

Hailed a curvy, racy beauty from Antonio Galloni and a fascinating wine from Monica Lerner, Sassicaia 2017 is one of the most anticipated releases of the year. Sassicaia 2017 is a blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Cabernet Franc. In her preview assessment of the wine, Lerner describes incredibly well the tension existing from vintner and vintage and how, like in this case, the vintner comes out on top. Far from an easy vintage, 2017 has the merit to emphasise how incredibly special Tenuta San Guido's terroir and how skilled the winemaking team are. Despite sustained temperatures throughout the growing season and summer and very little rainfall, Sassicaia 2017 has retained remarkable purity, elegance and precision.

"The 2017 Sassicaia was expertly built to withstand a long aging future, yet only time will tell if the beauty of the bouquet will evolve at the same pace. This fascinating wine magically captures the hallmarks of cool-temperature winemaking in one of the hottest vintages in recent years. Vintners, not vintage, won this round." Monica Lerner, 94 Points, The Wine Advocate

As usual, Guidalberto and Difese are one vintage ahead. Guidalberto, a wine that can be enjoyed at a younger age and named after the family member who planted the iconic cypress tree avenue which marks the entrance to the Bolgheri estate. The final wine completing the trio of releases is the 2018 Le Difese, a Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon blend made for immediate drinking, featuring on the label and named after the tusks of the wild boars found roaming the extensive woodland and wildlife reserve on estate.

Production is down again in comparison to previous vintages – and therefore so are the allocations.
